

Colyton Tramway Station Link to East Devon Way

(Follow the Link Waymarkers)

Difficulty: easy

Walking time: 10 mins to Colyton 30 mins to Colyford

Start location: Colyton Tramway Station

Route Summary: Short walk between the stations along the River Coly

Description: - [1] Start at the Colyton Station - Walk down the road past the columns of an old railway bridge - now dismantled - turn left into Cowhayne Lane - Continue for a short on-road stretch then go through kiss gate and cross field to the large footbridge - Here you have joined the East Devon Way.

[2] Turn right over the footbridge and follow the East Devon way markers to Colyton -

Or

[3] Follow the path down by the side of the River Coly - After a while you will reach a junction in the footpaths.

[4] At this junction you can turn left and follow the East Devon Way markers to Musbury and beyond to Lyme Regis.

Or

[5] Follow the Link waymarkers down the river Coly - Eventually you will emerge near the Colyford Tramway Station at Colyford - Take care crossing the road to the Station or the pub - from here you can take the Tram back to Colyton or to Seaton.

Or

[6] Turn left and cross the Tramway into Cowhayne Lane - Walk up Cowhayne Lane - after a short distance turn left onto the East Devon Way and return to Colyton.

Or

[7] Walk a bit further and join the East Devon Way to Musbury or Whitford.

East Devon Way Link Route Colyford Tramway Station to Colyton Tramway Station

(Follow the Link Waymarkers)

Difficulty: easy

Walking time: 30 mins to Colyton

Length: 1.5 km / 1 mile

Start location: Colyford Station

Route Summary: Mainly off-road link route up the River Coly to Colton Station

Description: - [1] Cross road from Colyford Station to the waymarked footpath opposite the Pub - Follow the Link markers to the east Devon Way and on to Colyton Station.

Guide to Waymarked East Devon Way Links

between the East Devon Way, Colyton, Colyton Tram Station and Colyford Tram Station

